17. [redacted] Called Victor Zafra, OMB, and advised him of Mr. Houston's conversations with Treasury and Roger Jones concerning our retirement legislation. I told him that Treasury was agreeable to either a change in our language on the unfunded liability section or the dropping of the funding provisions in our retirement package. I said Mr. Houston had discussed this with Mr. Jones and Zafra would probably be hearing from Jones on it. Zafra thanked me for bringing him up to date on these developments and said he would be sure to get in touch with Jones. He made no comment on the feasibility of either of these courses.
